Where: Corstain Farm, Broughton

Creator: Scottish Endurance Rides 2010

Description:

Venue: Corstain farm on the Biggar road about 100 yards from Broughtonmain Street on the on the B7016. Classes Friday 2nd July - Evening Pleasure SATURDAY CLASSES Competitive - 2 day 80km - Lothians Challenge Cup, Quest Series Ride 2 Day 60km - Hot Trod Trophy Competitive 50km and 30km Pleasure SUNDAY CLASSES Day 2 of competitive 2 day 80 & 60km Competitive 30km Pleasure Route organisers - L & J Edgar, A Wilson, Connie Anderson & Nicola Hawkins, Contact; 01899 810246 Very popular and varied routes Friday - a short pleasure ride along the old railway to Biggar with the CP at the primary school where water is available. Saturday - route is mainly over farmland and some forestry. This is a fast flowing and popular route. No promises re the gate openers this year. Sunday - a more challenging route with a hilly start. Some fields, tracks and some road work. Improvements for this year are to take out the stoney section if possible. This route has something for everyone. The venue is as before where water and toilets are available and a separate field for the corrals. Camping also available The legendary Broughton supper on the Saturday night is done for us by the Crown hotel in Biggar and consists of a choice of 2 main courses plus a vegetarian option plus a choice of 2 puddings. It is very popular and is held in the village hall which is within walking distance of the venue - tickets purchased in advance £10 per person for truly amazing food! Where: Jackstown, Rothienorman/Oldmeldrum

Description:

Classes; competitive - 60, 50, 30km pleasure - 24km or 16km Route organiser - Jenny Milne and friends EMail: jaw@byways.demon.co.uk Route - 15% tarmac, 85% fields The routes available will predominantly involve stubble fields and tracks around the edges of fields which will provide spectacular views over the surrounding landscape including Inverurie, Inch, Oldmeldrum and Fyvie. The going under foot will be welcoming to those horses who have shallow feet with only a few tracks and small country lanes / roads. There is corralling and stabling available in the area and it is hoped that the venue will have hard standing. The Southside Ride at Daviot, Inverurie forms part of the 30-60km routes.
